PRESS RELEASE 03 FEBRUARY 2005

The Compliance Register is pleased to announce the appointment of Mark Freeman as the Events Organiser for the Isle of Man.

Commenting on the appointment, Ben Goh, Secretary of The Compliance Register said:-

“We are pleased that Mark Freeman has agreed to accept the appointment as Events Organiser for the Isle of Man. For a number of years now, we have organised annually the Manx Compliance Conference and our membership on the island is growing steadily. We are conscious of the ever growing needs of our Manx members in responding to regulatory, industry and market developments. As an international financial centre, our Manx members have significant roles to play to ensure that their firm’s operate to acceptable Manx as well as international standards. Mark’s role is to research and organise training events to help keep our Manx members updated on Manx, UK and international regulatory developments. His first task is to organise The 8th Manx Compliance Conference which is scheduled for 16 May 2005.”

Ends.

Notes for Editors

1. The Compliance Register was founded in 1995 as the international organisation for compliance professionals and senior managers working in the financial services industry. Members work in a variety of jurisdictions ranging from the UK, Isle of Man, Jersey, USA, Japan, Hong Kong, Singapore, Malaysia, South Korea, Bermuda, Thailand and Australia.
2. The financial services industry is a significant part of the Manx economy and a credit to the vision and leadership of the Isle of Man government. There are significant challenges ahead and well-trained compliance professionals should help meet these challenges.
